

WE NOMINATE

Thomas Jefferson Wertenbaker, one of the most prolific American historians of this century and a dedicated Princetonian for over five decades, who at age 81—some 16 years following his "retirement"—has been singled out as the 1963 winner of the New Jersey Historical Society Award for "distinguished contributions to the history of the State." The surprise and highly diamatic presentation here at the Princeton Inn underscored not only his pioneering efforts in the 1930's and 1910's as editor of the first comprehensive record of New Jersey's history hut also the range of his writings covering the entire span of American colonial life Ironi "The Old South" to the Boston-centered "Puritan Oligarchy."

Handicapped in recent years by ill health, but invariably available for consultation with fellow historians and still an ardent Princeton "baseball-goer" (including the Tigers' 6-0 loss to Trenton State last Saturday), Wertenbaker ranked among the most popular menever to teach in Princeton University, He was appointed to the Department of History in 1910 by Woodrow Wilson and for the next 37 years, until "retiring" in 1917 in the company of the late Henry Norris Russell, brought to his lectures the insights of the scholar as well as the flair for the dramatic he had developed as an editorial writer for both the "Baltimore News" and "The New York Sun."

It has been said that for Wertenbaker, twice Harmsworth Professor of American History in Oxford University and an honorary member of the Corporation of the University of Goettingen, Germany, there are two stars in his private firmament, New Jersey and Vinginia. A native of Charlottesville, Va., where for a half-century his grandlather served as Librarian of "The University," he received his degrees at Vinginia and down through the years did his most important writing either here or in his native community, or in Colonial Williamsburg. For him, author of the definitive "Princeton: 1746-1896," the erstwhile College of New Jersey will always be "the northernmost of the southern universities."

During the late 1910's and the frenetic 1950's, a time of life when most men would be tempted to seek out opportunities for rest and relaxation, Wertenbaker was much like a piece of quick-silver in the groves of academe, He held forth as a visiting lecturer and professor in a half-dozen institutions, from the University of Munich's American Institute to Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia, and continued writing at an almost feverish pace. His part in planning the Woodrow Wilson Centennial was recognized by a Princeton honorary degree, while 1958 was marked by the publication of "Give Me Liberty: The Struggle for Self-Government in Virginia."

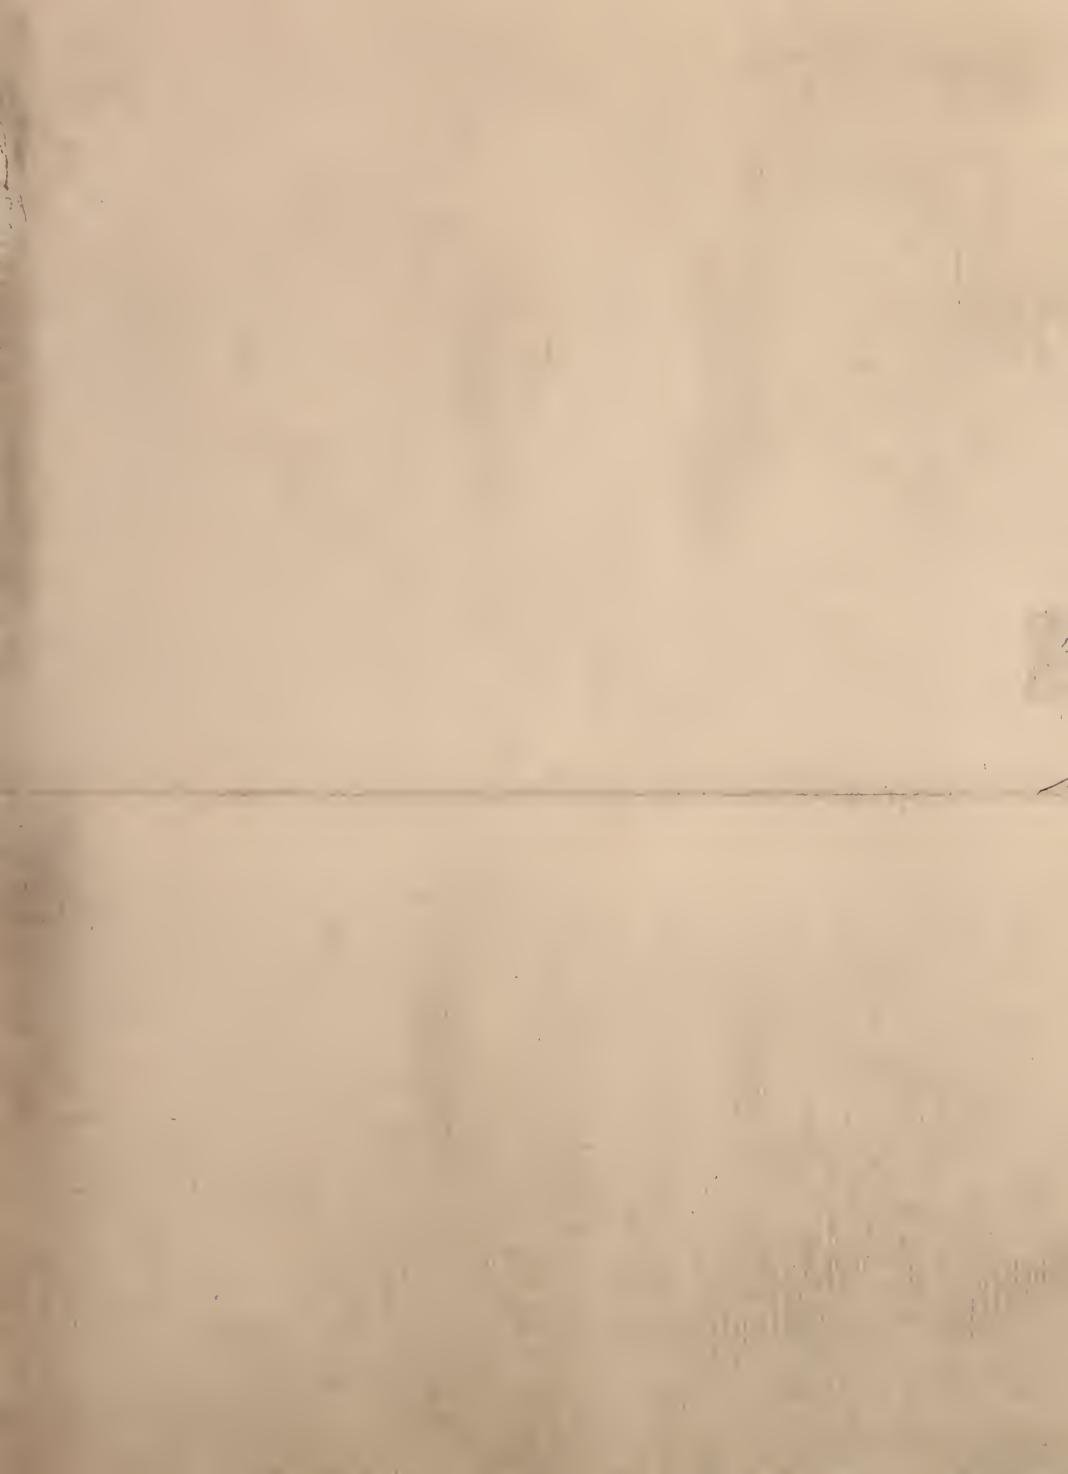

Decorated by the British Government for his work as chairman of the Princeton Chapter of British War Relief in World War II, Wertenbaker carries his honors lightly and with a delightful sense of humor. He is a past president of the American Historical Society and a former chairman of the Conneil of the Institute of Early American History and Culture at Williamsburg, and has a foot-long roster of honorary affiliations.

For possessing the kind of spirit which permits human beings to look beyond the restrictions imposed by the on-rush of years and the demands of the present; for meriting the distinction that has now been conferred upon six distinguished residents of New Jersey; for giving Princeton still another reason to dwell with pride on the achievements of its "senior citizens"; he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee as

THIS IS ART? Time was when Princeton University decorated the campus with friendly, easily recognizable sculpture of people, tigers, lions and such. No longer, This new work, done in bronze, is supposed to add something to the heanty done in bronze, is supposed to add something to the heanty of the courtyard of the new Engineering Quadrangle. In case you wonder, it's called "Thermopylae" for reasons known only to the sculptor. HOUSING SITE DEBATED Need Exists; Opinion Mixed To borrow from Mark Twain. "Everybody talks about low-cost housing, but nobody seems to know what to do about it." This applies to the proposed low-cost project of 30 units for older residents, which the Borough Housing Authority would like to erect on what it says is the only suitable remaining site in town, located on Harrison Street between Nassau and Hamilton Avenue. Official and unofficial opinion about the site seems to be four-fold. First, there are those who are against public housing of any kind, claiming that "people of extremely limited income should have their financial allotments increased so they can pay rent to private developers of comparatively low-cost housing and thereby low-cost housing seems to be four-fold. willingness to provide adequate and attractive homes for some of our older fellow-citizens Certainly nobody who has ta ton is considered to be some-thing of a model for other communities. Lloyd Terrace would further enhance this reputation. It would be a ca-lamity if its construction, fa-vored by the many, were to be blocked by the few."

Why the Hurry? But, unless Princeton's Housing Authority gets the go-ahead soon, the Lloyd Terrace units will not be buill. Funds for the con-struction of such a project have been available, but un-used, since 1956. Building has been blocked lime and again, a spokesman says, because of the unavailability or open disapproval of possible sites.

The location on Harrison Street is reported to be the last area within the Borough useable for such a project. And, if the federal Public Housing Authority doesn't get a "yes" answer from Prince-lon by July 18, the allocation of funds will be withdrawn, there will be no Lloyd Terrace and, because of the seven years of uncertainty and unwillingness on the part of Princeton to approve the project, it will undoubtedly be a long, long time before such an opportunity is again made SCOOP! Creamy Ice Creamy. When we saw the sign in Buxton's Dairy Bar "cones, 15 cents and 25 cents," we decided to go it big and order a 25 cent chocolate almond. But the little girl in front of us had just ordered a 15 cent cone, and when we saw the size of hers.

We took the 15 cent size, too. It's like one of those oldtoo. It's like one of those obt-fashioned nosegays ladics used to carry; that's about the size of it. After you've eaten two thirds, you find yourself with the amount of ice-cream usually contained in a standard 10 cent cone. It's all cream, no ice-flakes. And slivers of nuts all through that chocolate almond.

There's Flavor X, too, which there's Flavor X, too, which is a mixture of cherry, plneapple and coconut; and pistachio and strawberry marble, for a total of 26 different flavors. All the ice cream is made right next door. We never did see a 25 cent cone. Must be close the cone words?

Canadian bacon, pork roll and liverwurst, all from the Hickory Valley smoke houses, make fine sandwiches. There are outdoor redwood tables for you, this time of the year, and inside counters are sourced.

SEVEN STEPS TO EXPERT

Contrary to popular belief, rug cleoning is not a simple do-it-yourself process. Rugs can represent a substantial amount of your home furnishings' investment. Careful home care, proper handling, expert cleaning and repairing give added dividends in longer wear os well as greater beauty.

This is how our rug cleaning experts - with over 30 years experience in this field - handle your investment.

- 1. When your call is received, a pick-no of your rug is scheduled at your convenience. (Up to four men are available, and one of two trucks or station wagon will call for it, depending upon the rug's size.)
- 2. All men are trained to roll rugs and move furniture when necessary. Respect and care for your personal belongings are uppermost in their minds. (We have complete insurance coverage in ease of damage or breakage.) At the time of pick-up, you receive a numbered receipt for all rugs, and each rug is tagged with your name, number and list of services required.
- 3. Upon entering our own plant (your visit is welcome at any time), your ring is incasured, dusted, spot-cleaned, and then completely cleaned as soon as possible. The type of cleaning it receives depends on the kind of rng. There are approximately seven different processes we can employ. Whether your rug is a fine, delicate tapestry or a cotton hath mat, each gets its correct process.
- 4. Drying is just as important as washing. We have a large dryroom where rugs can be hung full-length or laid flat, with automatic heat control and proper air circulation, or for sunshine drying, large lawn areas are available.
- 5. After drying, rigs are inspected before they are rolled, wrapped, packed or placed in storage. If additional attention is required, your rug can be re-washed, or spotted to assure the best possible results.
- 6. While awaiting delivery, rugs are kept in storage tubes. These tubes keep them free from dust and not in contact with other rugs - thus preventing crushing.
- 7. Your rug is delivered to you at your convenience. Rugs and pads are expertly laid if requested. Pads are trimmed where necessary.

There is a nominal charge for laying rugs. This is not included in the cleaning price because most rugs are not laid by our men. This charge is made separately because a hidden charge would not be fair or ethical.

> NOW IS THE TIME PROTECT YOUR RUG INVESTMENT

> HAVE THEM CLEANED (repair facilities available as well as storage)

Mr. Suppers' committee recommended the construction of a high school with a functional capacity of 1,000 students, a building which could later be expanded to 1,500. Plans call for a special election to approve the school in the spring of 1964, with completion of the building in time for the opening of school in September, 1966.

In its report, the committee told the Board that population projections for the junior high school indicated that, if a senior high school were not built, the junior high school would have to be enlarged and that more room for elementary school students would have to be provided.

A site has been selected on North Harrisan Street on which a rather minor variance from the Zoning Ordinance will be required. The variance has to do with the number of units per acre, but since the project is designed specifically for elderly couples and single people, the spirit of the law as to density of population is in no way violated.

On Thursday, May 23, the Housing Authority presented its case to the Board of Adjustment, and the Board ruled that it did not have jurisdiction in the matter because the Housing Authority did not own the property. Clues: A very famous model of a very famous car— One of today's leading automotive manufacturers. On January 1S of the model year, the first telephone call between New Yark and San Francisca was made by Alexander Graham Bell and Thomas A. Watson In that same year, the 1,000,000th Ford car was built.

Clues: This is the year that Hiller was arrested and imprisoned at Landsberg, where he wrote "Mein Kampf." A year earlier, the Ford Motor Company purchased Lincoln Mator Company and just two years earlier this make was introduced. It bears a man's name famous in automotive history and like so many others in this field, he started in the carriage business. However, today no car or manufacturer bears this name.

Should you buy your child a Life Insurance policy?

There are many worthwhile benefits when a child has a policy of his (or her) very own. It has the lifetime advantage of a low premium rate. It encourages thrift and lays the foundation for a growing personal estate.

But a note of caution-there are more important questions to answer first. Have you, the father, adoquate insurance on your own life? Is there enough to guarantee the family their food, clothiog, shelter and education requirements for as long as needed?

If you would like competent guidance oo this problem the Man from Manufacturers is a good mao to talk to. He'li put first things first-help you establish objectives for all-round family security. He'll give you a realistic plan for the future that will take the "hit and miss" out of buying life insurance. Why not call him today!

Phone Area Codes To Hetp. I get more calls for Newark's

Bell's Princeton office, when area codes go into effect on July 21 for calls between the north and southern parts of the state. The new procedure, which will affect less than an estimated one-half of one per cent of all ealls, is designed primarily to meet accelerating demands for phone service.

Establishment of the two dialing areas will just about double the availability of usa-ble telephone numbers. Most telephone numbers will than be able to be used in either half of the state with the area eode serving to distinguish between them.

The area code for North Jer-scy is 201; for South Jersey, including Princeton, the code is 609. Other towns on the northern boundary of the 609 are a include Lambertville Henowell Planchere Cran hopewell, Plainsboro, Cranbury, Hightstown and Allentown. Just across the "border" in the 201 sector are, among others, Flemington, Belle Mead, Franklin Park and Free-

In a related change, also effective on July 21, all New Jersey Bell customers will use area code 212 for New York City and 215 for calls to Philadelphia. Many people now use the digits 1-1 instead of the area codes.

Of the nation's most popuof the last to require area codes on calls within its borders. New York, for example, has seven area codes in use and Pennsylvania has four. Last year, more than 140,000 phones were added to the New Jersey Bell network, which now includes approximately 3,200,000 telephones. —Conlinued on Page 20

Floral Studies On View, Fainfliarity with science and her native Florida is evident in her native Florida is evident in her subject matter and technique With intimate knowledge of the structure of "flora" and her habit of close observation, she can create faithful reproductions such at "l'asslon Flower," a pastel done in color against black, using the delicately curled tendrils to balance the purple blossons in a nice design. "Iris," in water-color, and "Dogwood," in ink, are accurate illustrations.

MISS McCracken refers to having studied painting in order to loosen up her technique to keep It freer from the tighter, more demanding perfections of the state of nique, to keep it freer from the tighter, more demanding perfection of hotanical drawing. One departure must be "Still Life" which puts less emphasis an drawing and more on strong, clear color and texture.

A landscape, "Urban Cacophony," is a concentration on omething different; this time on design in line and color and painted with a very matte surface. Dodona," a landscape with an old gnarled time fee. face 'Dodona," a landscape with an old gnarled tree, festooned with Spanish moss which is whipped by a Floridian line storm, has more feeling and freedom in painting than the rest. ### How to Be Published at 92

Charles Grosvenor Os-good, of 92 Stockton Street, beloved and brilliant Princeton professor emeri-tus, has just achieved two more distinctions to add to the countless honors he has received during his long and continuing career as scholar, teacher and writer.

Just having reached his 92nd hirthday, he last Thursday had published an-other book, "Creed of a Humanist," by the Univer-Humanist," by the University of Washington Press to add to the already impressive list of works he has written and edited. "Creed of a Humanist," for which Mr. Osgood did the writing, editing and meticulous preoferations is a spries of proofreading, is a series of cesays based on a number of his notable lectures here in Princeton and elsewhere

Mr. Osgood, a native of Wellsboro, Pa., came to Princeton in 1905 as one of the University's original "preceptor guys" and is now one of the few remaining members of that group which did so much in the academic strengthening of the University. According to one who knows him well, Mr. Osgood at 92 "is far more alert and thoughlfully incisive than most men half his age." Publication of his book is ample testimony to this deserved tribute.

LATE RALLY WINS

As Tigers Take Ivy Title. Down by 7-4 at half-time to a Cornell lacrosse team that it had been expected to handle easily, Princeton jammed five goals into the nets in the final two periods Saturday while holding the home team to one. The result at Ithaca was a slim 9-8 triumph but good enough to give Ferris Thomsen his seventh eonsecutive I vy ehampionship. The Tigers have not lost a league game since 1956, only one tie marring the Fourth-place Cornell scored.

BALL TEAM IN TROUBLE.

Nay Not Top .500. The blistering pace that Princeton's baseball team set for itself in April (after ten games, 8-2) tas been killed off by weak hitting, poor fielding and last week's heavy frost. The Tigers have now lost five in a row, barely top the break even point with an 11-10 record and are quite likely to finish below .500.

In their last two outings, they have made three times as many errors (6) as they have made three times as shim 9-8 triumph but good enough to give Ferris Thomsen his seventh eonsecutive I vy ehampionship. The Tigers have not lost a league game since 1956, only one tie marring the record.

NCAA Baseball District Finals Here This Weekend

The four top college baseball Jeams of NCAA District 11 New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Mary-knd) will meet here in a two-day elimination fournament this weekend. A doubleheader Friday afternoon on Clarke Field will be followed by a third game Saturday, with the taking part in the finals the following week at Omaha, Nebr.

In the opener Friday at 1.30, Rider College (17-3) of nearby Lawrenceville will face Peno State (11-4). The second contest will pit Temple (20-2) against St. John's of Brooklyn (21-4), with the two winners then playing each other Saturday at 2 o'clock for the right to go to Omaha.

Should Rider reach the district finals by defeating Penn State, expectations are that Jack Lackey, one-time Prince-ton High School standout, will be its pitching choice. Lackey is imbested in collegiate competition, holding a 9-0 record and compiling a fine 118 carned run average. He is currently in his junior year.

While Princeton, currently pegged at 11-10, is a long way from having been considered for an NCAA playoff borth, the Tigers have one claim to fame. Of the lwn do-feats that Temple has suffered in 22 games, one was on npening day loss at Philadelphia to Gerry Skey, Princeton junior The score that day was 8 to 1.

The two-day event will attract a sizeable number of league scouts, with every one of the four competing teams numbering players on its roster who might make if all the way. St. John's, a perennial power in eastern college ball, is currently represented on the New York Mets by pitcher Larry Bearnath, who was still on the campus a year ago.

This is the first time that NCAA playoffs have been held at Princeton. The Tigers made their way to Omaha a dozen years ago when a scintillating 17-3 record wun them the District II title without resorting to a playoff. In the finals, they were eliminated by losses to Southern Cal and Tennessee, but came back to win the Eastern League championship.

Clip and Save: Princeton's '63-'64 Basketball Schedule

Princeton's emergence into the national basketball spotlight through the presence of all-American Bill Bradley on its team is reflected in the most ambitious schedule ever booked here in the sport.

The Tigers will play 26 games highlighted by the 14 lvy League contests in which they will defend their title and appearance in no less than three holiday formaments. During Christmas vacation, they'll travel some 4,000 miles into the south and mid-west, finishing the journey with a game against Washington University of St. Louis in Bradley's home state of Missouri.

The Christmas treats for Bill Van Breda Kolff's touring troupe include visits to Lexington, Ky., where Kentucky, Wake Forest and Wisconsin are also booked; to Miami, Fla, to play in the Hurricane Classic with Miami, Syracuse and Army; and to Charlotte, N. C., where Davidson, Taylor, and Benneylyania will be on hand. Texas and Pennsylvania will be on hand.

But the fans who last winter wanted 7,000 seats when only 2800 were available will see Princeton in action in Dillon Gym on only ten of the 26 times the Tigers will take to the court. In addition to the seven by League games, Villanova, Army and Rutgers are on the home schedule.

Possible short road trips may be made to Easton, Pa., Philadelphia, New York and New Haven. Trouble is, those gyms, too, will be bought out by the home-town fans anxious to see Bradley.

The 1963-'64 schedule:

Dec. 4, Villanova; 7, Army; 11, Lafayette at Easton; 14, Navy at Annapolis; 17, Rutgers; 20-21, Kentucky Invitational at Lexington; 27-28, Hurricane Classic at Miamt, 30-31, Charlotte Holiday Tournament at Charlotte.

**Renan who lived from 1823 to 1892 said, "Institutions grounded on Communism always have brilliant beginnings, for Communism involves a great exaltation; but they decline rapidly, for Communism conflict with human nawith force over enditted in the property of the communism and the property of the pro cline rapidly, for Communism is in conflict with human na-ture." Only with force over en-slaved men could it endure as long as it has today. Communist overlords must keep their peoples under their heels for exactly the reason Renan stated, that it is in conflict with human nature, in conflict with the aspirations of ordinary men everywhere. That is why the iron boot will never be lifted voluntarily off the peoples' necks without a miracle. That is why, when we celebrate Memorial Day, we might well also pray for the living who suffer in the Red world, and give a fervent thanks to God for America! Kammler Rujok Pentijac Co. Paris 2006. There are many sport coupes that cost hundreds, yes, even thousands more than the captivating Capri. But there's not a solitary one that tops Ford's most personal coupe from England for the appeal of right design.

Luxurious Comfort

It's a two seater for most of your driving but there's space for the occasional extra passenger. Upholstery is soft English leather facing over foam rubber for the contoured bucket scats. Carpeting is deep tufted, bound, and hand fitted wall to wall. You get a padded dash, too, and a car wide parcel tray plus a spacious glove locker.

Nimble Performance

Capri's engine is rally bred. 4 cylinders. Overhead valves. Zero to 60 very briskly. Disc brakes up front, same as used on expensive racing machines. They're fade free! Transmission is 4 speed, with your choice of column or floor shift.

Why not let a Capri tell you the rest of its story itself? You'll agree it's ...

Best of the imports because best of all
